Mary Baker Eddy Memorial

Sculpted plaster bas-relief depicting rotunda that memorializes the burial place of Mary Baker Eddy (1821–1910). Self-identification in bottom right-hand corner reads: “Elizabeth Ferrea Ehat, Copyright 1918.” Here quoting from Catalogue of Copyright Entries, Part 4, New Series, Volume 13 for the Year 1918, Nos. 1–4 (Washington: Government Printing Office, 1919), no. 2, Works of Art, at 4523 (p. 86): “Eddy memorial. Bas-relief panel of Eddy memorial in Boston.” The “© 1 c. Apr. 8, 1918” in the entry stands for copyright registration of the panel as an unpublished work, followed by the date of receipt in the Copyright Office of the photograph or other identifying reproduction of the panel.

The rotunda memorial is located on what was then called “Garden Pond” (later named “Halcyon Pond” and even later named “Halcyon Lake”) in the Mount Auburn Cemetery on the Waterton/Cambridge line, 6 miles from downtown Boston, Massachusetts.
